

TRICARE® Eligibility

General TRICARE eligibility information for sponsors and their family members

Keeping your information up to date in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) is key to ensuring TRICARE eligibility for you and your family. All uniformed service sponsors (active duty, National Guard and Reserve, and retirees) should ensure that their military career status, family status (e.g., marriage, divorce, birth, adoption), and residential address are current in DEERS at all times. Except for newborns and newly adopted children, all beneficiaries must be registered in DEERS to be eligible for TRICARE. DEERS registration may be completed at uniformed services identification (ID) card-issuing facilities, not TRICARE Service Centers.

You have several options for updating and verifying your DEERS information:

In Person¹ (To add a family member or update contact information)	Visit a uniformed services identification card-issuing facility. • Find a facility near you at www.dmdc.osd.mil/rsl . • Call to verify location and business hours.
Phone ²	1-800-538-9552

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION BY SPONSOR TYPE

Sponsor Type	Eligibility for TRICARE Benefits
Active Duty Service Members (ADSMs) (includes National Guard and Reserve members called or ordered to active service for more than 30 consecutive days)	Spouses and children of ADSMs are eligible for benefits as active duty family members (ADFMs), as long as their information is up to date in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS).
	For children, certain other provisions may apply:
	• The sponsor's children remain eligible even if parents divorce or remarry; however, the sponsor's stepchildren lose their eligibility.
	• Children placed in the custody of an ADSM or former service member, either by a court or by a recognized adoption agency, in anticipation of legal adoption by the member, may be eligible.
	• The sponsor's children's eligibility continues until reaching age 21 (or age 23 if enrolled in a full-time course of study at an approved institution of higher learning and if the sponsor provides at least 50 percent of the financial support). After "aging out" of TRICARE benefits, certain eligible dependents may extend TRICARE coverage until reaching age 26 with the premium-based TRICARE Young Adult (TYA) program.
	Surviving spouses and surviving children continue to receive benefits after their ADSM sponsor's death.
	• Claims for spouses will be cost-shared at the ADFM rate for three years after their ADSM sponsor's death and, thereafter, at the retiree rate.
	• Surviving spouses who have not remarried remain eligible (eligibility cannot be regained later, even in the case of divorce or death of the new spouse).
	• Surviving unmarried children remain eligible until reaching age 21 (or age 23 if enrolled in a full-time course of study at an approved institution of higher learning and if the sponsor provided over 50 percent of the financial support). After "aging out" of TRICARE benefits, certain eligible dependents may extend TRICARE coverage until reaching age 26 with the premium-based TYA program.
Retired Service Members ²	Spouses and children of retired service members are eligible for benefits if their information is up to date in DEERS. Retiree family members are responsible for paying any applicable enrollment fees, deductibles, cost-shares, or copayments at the retiree rate.
	For children, certain other provisions may apply:
	• The sponsor's children remain eligible even if parents divorce or remarry; however, the sponsor's stepchildren lose their eligibility.
	• Children placed in the custody of a retired service member, either by a court or by a recognized adoption agency, in anticipation of legal adoption by the member, may be eligible.
	• The sponsor's children's eligibility continues until reaching age 21 (or age 23 if enrolled in a full-time course of study at an approved institution of higher learning and if the sponsor provides over 50 percent of the financial support). After "aging out" of TRICARE benefits, certain eligible dependents may extend TRICARE coverage until reaching age 26 with the premium-based TYA program.
	Survivors of retirees remain eligible with the same TRICARE options and costs they had before their sponsor passed away.
	• Surviving spouses remain eligible for TRICARE unless they remarry (eligibility cannot be regained later, even in the case of divorce or death of the new spouse).
	• Children remain eligible until reaching age 21 (or age 23 if enrolled in a full-time course of study at an approved institution of higher learning and if the sponsor provided over 50 percent of the financial support). After "aging out" of TRICARE benefits, certain eligible dependents may extend TRICARE coverage until reaching age 26 with the premium-based TYA program.

- 1. Children with disabilities may remain TRICARE-eligible beyond the normal age limits. Check with your sponsor's service for eligibility criteria.
- 2. Excludes members of the Retired Reserve who have not reached age 60, as well as their spouses and children.

Eligibility for TRICARE Benefits
National Guard and Reserve members called or ordered to active service for more than 30 consecutive days are covered as ADSMs, and their family members are covered as active duty family members (ADFMs).
Surviving spouses and surviving children continue to receive benefits after their sponsor's death, if the sponsor died while serving on active duty for a period of more than 30 consecutive days.
• Claims for spouses will be cost-shared at the ADFM rate for three years after the death of the ADSM sponsor, and thereafter, at the retiree rate.
• Surviving spouses who have not remarried remain eligible (eligibility cannot be regained later, even in the case of divorce or death of the new spouse).
• Surviving unmarried children remain eligible until reaching age 21 (or age 23 if enrolled in a full-time course of study at an approved institution of higher learning and if the sponsor provided over 50 percent of the financial support). After "aging out" of TRICARE benefits, certain eligible dependents may extend TRICARE coverage until reaching age 26 with the premium-based TYA program.
Non-activated National Guard and Reserve members may qualify for the Transitional Assistance Management Program (TAMP) following an activation period of more than 30 consecutive days. TAMP provides 180 days of transitional TRICARE coverage for eligible sponsors and their family members.
Qualifying sponsors may purchase Continued Health Care Benefit Program (CHCBP) coverage within 60 days of the end of TRICARE eligibility or TAMP coverage, whichever is later. CHCBP provides up to 18 months of premium-based health coverage. Qualifying family members may be included in CHCBP family coverage purchased by their sponsors.
National Guard and Reserve members may qualify to purchase TRICARE Reserve Select (TRS) coverage if they are both:
Members of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve
• Not eligible for, or enrolled in, the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) program
Family members of National Guard and Reserve members are eligible for comprehensive coverage if the sponsor purchases TRS member-and-family coverage.
Survivors of Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve members may qualify to continue or purchase TRS coverage for up to 180 days after the date of the sponsor's death if all of the following apply:
• The deceased sponsor was covered by TRS on the date of his or her death
• The survivors are currently immediate family members of the deceased sponsor (spouses cannot have remarried)

^{1.} Early eligibility applies when the sponsor is called or ordered to active service for more than 30 consecutive days. The sponsor and family members are eligible for TRICARE on the date the order was issued or 180 days before reporting to active duty, whichever is later. The personnel office will provide notification of eligibility.

^{2.} Children with disabilities may remain TRICARE-eligible beyond the normal age limits. Check with your sponsor's service for eligibility criteria.

Sponsor Type	Eligibility for TRICARE Benefits
Retired Reserve Members	Retired Reserve members may qualify to purchase TRICARE Retired Reserve (TRR) coverage if they are:
	Members of the Retired Reserve who qualify for non-regular retirement
	• Under age 60
	Not eligible for, or enrolled in, the FEHB program
	Family members of Retired Reserve members are eligible for comprehensive coverage if the sponsor purchases TRR member-and-family coverage.
	Survivors of Retired Reserve members may qualify to purchase TRR coverage if all of the following apply:
	• The deceased sponsor was covered by TRR on the date of his or her death
	• The survivors are immediate family members of the deceased sponsor (spouses cannot have remarried)
	• TRR coverage would begin before the date the deceased sponsor would have reached age 60

Note: Medal of Honor recipients and their eligible family members (including unremarried former spouses) are eligible for TRICARE.

INFORMATION FOR OTHER BENEFICIARY CATEGORIES

If you or your family members fall into one of the beneficiary categories listed below, certain additional eligibility rules and limitations may apply.

Medicare-Eligible	If you are entitled to premium-free Medicare Part A due to age, disability, or disease:
	• Medicare Part B coverage is required to remain TRICARE-eligible when you are a:
	• Retired service member (including retired National Guard and Reserve members drawing retirement pay)
	Family member of a retired service member
	Medal of Honor recipient or eligible family member
	Survivor of a deceased sponsor
	Qualifying former spouse
	• Medicare Part B coverage is not required to keep your current TRICARE coverage if:
	• You are an active duty service member (ADSM) or active duty family member (ADFM) (ADSMs and ADFMs remain eligible for TRICARE Prime and TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra options while the sponsor is on active duty. However, when the sponsor retires, you must have Medicare Part B to remain TRICARE-eligible)
	• You are enrolled in TRICARE Reserve Select (TRS), TRICARE Retired Reserve (TRR), or the US Family Health Plan (USFHP) (while you are not required to have Medicare Part B to remain eligible for TRR or USFHP, you are strongly encouraged to sign up for Medicare Part B when first eligible to avoid paying a premium surcharge if you enroll at a later date)

Dependent Parents and Parents-in-Law	 Dependent parents and parents-in-law are eligible for care only in a military treatment facility (MTF) and may enroll in TRICARE Plus based on space/resource availability. TRICARE Plus is an MTF-based primary care enrollment program that provides beneficiaries who are not enrolled in TRICARE Prime an opportunity to enroll with their local MTFs. Dependent parents and parents-in-law are not eligible for TRICARE Prime, TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra, TRICARE For Life, TRS, or TRR.
Eligible Former Spouses	To maintain eligibility, former spouses:
	Must not have remarried (if a former spouse remarries, the loss of benefits remains applicable even if the remarriage ends in death or divorce)
	Must not be covered by an employer-sponsored health plan
	Must not be the former spouse of a North Atlantic Treaty Organization or Partners for Peace nation member
	Must meet the requirements listed in Situation 1 or Situation 2 below
	Situation 1:
	• The former spouse must have been married to the same service member or former member for at least 20 years, and at least 20 of those years must have been creditable in determining the member's eligibility or retirement pay.
	• If this requirement is met, the former spouse is eligible for TRICARE coverage after the date of the divorce, dissolution, or annulment. Eligibility continues as long as the preceding requirements continue to be met and the former spouse does not remarry.
	Situation 2:
	• The former spouse must have been married to the same service member or former member for at least 20 years, and at least 15—but less than 20—of those married years must have been creditable in determining the member's eligibility for retirement pay.
	• If this requirement is met, the former spouse is eligible for TRICARE coverage for only one year from the date of the divorce, dissolution, or annulment. ¹
	Note: Former spouses who remarry after age 55 and who were enrolled in CHCBP for the 18 months prior to the end of the marriage may still be eligible to continue coverage under CHCBP.
Adult-Age Children	Children who age out of regular TRICARE coverage may be eligible to purchase TRICARE Young Adult (TYA). TYA is a premium-based health care plan available for purchase by qualified dependents. TYA offers TRICARE Prime and TRICARE Standard coverage worldwide. TYA includes medical and pharmacy benefits, but excludes dental coverage.
	You may generally purchase TYA coverage if you are all of the following:
	A dependent of a TRICARE-eligible sponsor
	• Unmarried
	• At least age 21 (or age 23 if previously enrolled in a full-time course of study at an approved institution of higher learning and if the sponsor provides over 50 percent of the financial support), but have not yet reached age 26
	For more information visit www.tricare.mil/tya .

^{1.} For divorce decrees, dissolutions, or annulments on or before September 29, 1988, check DEERS for eligibility information.

Disabled Veteran, Family of a Disabled Veteran, or Former Spouse Who Lost TRICARE Eligibility	Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Department of Veterans Affairs (CHAMPVA) is administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Veterans may contact the VA toll-fre at 1-800-827-1000 for information. Details on possible CHAMPVA eligibility for family members are available from the VA Health Administration Center toll-free at 1-800-733-8387 or visit www.va.gov/hac/forbeneficiaries/champva . The following beneficiary categories may be eligible:
	• Family members of veterans who have been rated permanently and totally disabled, or of veterans who died from a service-related disability, may be covered by CHAMPVA as long as they are not eligible for TRICARE.
	Former spouses who, when they remarried, lost their TRICARE eligibility, and whose marriage ended in divorce or death, may also be entitled CHAMPVA.
Disabled Active Duty Family Member	TRICARE Extended Care Health Option (ECHO) provides services to ADFMs who qualify based on specific mental or physical disabilities and offers beneficiaries an integrated set of services and supplies beyond the basic TRICARE programs. Potential ECHO beneficiaries must be ADFMs, have a qualifying condition, and be registered to receive ECHO benefits. For additional information, visit www.tricare.mil/echo .

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES FOR TRICARE ELIGIBILITY

Check with your local ID card-issuing facility or uniformed services personnel office about eligibility requirements for the following beneficiary categories:

- Certain family members of active duty service members who were discharged as a result of a court-martial conviction or separated for spouse or child abuse
- Certain abused spouses, former spouses, and dependent children of service members who were eligible for retirement, but whose retirement was revoked as a result of abuse of the spouse or child

• Spouses and children of representatives of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Partners for Peace nations that are signatories to the respective Status of Forces Agreements with the United States, while stationed in or passing through the United States on official business; these family members are eligible for outpatient benefits only

For more information about TRICARE eligibility, beneficiaries may contact their local Beneficiary Counseling and Assistance Coordinator. To find a BCAC near you, visit the Customer Service Community Directory at www.tricare.mil/bcacdcao. You may also find more information about eligibility online at www.tricare.mil.
